SATURDAY, MAY 2, 1752. [N°. 99.

The Conſcience of a People is their Power.

OLD Dryden, when he wrote this Line, loſt the Poet in the Politician: Cato, ſententious as he was, never drew a greater Truth into ſo ſmall a Compaſs, never ſaid ſo much in ſo little. It will be underſtood the Obſervation points only at the People of a Free State: The Application will not hold in Abſolute Monarchies, where the People, having no Power, might as well have no Conſcience; ſince the Dread of the one entirely ſupercedes the Operations of the other.

It is, I won't ſay the peculiar, Happineſs of Britain, to have the Power of its Inhabitants meaſured by their Honeſty; or, which is the ſame thing, by their Conſcience. The Bravery and Wiſdom, as well as Honeſty, of their Anceſtors have given them Laws which they have only to perpetuate——Laws, which, if they are but honeſt, they may perpetuate; and, which if they do not, future Britons may talk about Liberty and their Anceſtors —— "Yes,—and they may talk"---'twill be all they can--- Their Words can have no Ideas; for, without a miraculous Change in the human Structure, they cannot poſſibly know what they have not been enabled to ſee and feel.

Hence appears the indiſpenſible Duty of this Age, to tranſmit to ſucceeding Ages what it has itſelf received from the preceding. Conſcience is Power where Power bears the Curb of Law, and where that Law is in the Diſpenſation of the People. The Power of the Law is therefore in the Spirit of the People; and as this ebbs or flows, ſo will the other.

What is meant by obſerving, that the Diſpenſation of the Law lies in the People, will be readily apprehended. The Palladium of Britiſh Liberty, Trials by Juries, cannot but be preſent in Britiſh Minds: Nor can it be longer doubtful, how the Conſcience of Britons is the Power of Britons; for without that Conſcience 'tis evident they may reſolve Tyranny into Law, render themſelves deſpicable, and their Poſterity wretched. Theſe are Evils which can never exiſt while the Conſcience of Men exiſt; and this cannot die without the lurking Poiſon of ſecret Conſiderations.

Whatever Delays, whatever Hardſhips ariſe in the Conduct of our Laws, it is impoſſible not to admire the Laws themſelves. Their Defects are few, ſo few as even to baniſh Cenſure itſelf: And as to its Conduct, the Fault lies not in Court. Learned and upright Judges, who cannot be removed, quamdiu ſe bene geſſerint, at Pleaſure, hear Cauſes, and aſſiſt ſworn Juries in the Determination of them: The firſt explain, and the laſt decide. Thus Ignorance is informed, and Judgment uninfluenced.—— What can be more finely imagined, for the Security of Life, Liberty, and Property? —— Where can a Man have ſtronger Expectations of Right than in the conſcious, diſintereſted and unanimous Verdict of Twelve of his Peers —— Men, whoſe Honor, Reputation, and every truly valuable Conſideration, are ſo inſeparably interwove in the Event of their Deciſions? For higher Perfection we muſt quit Humanity, and look out for a Commonwealth of Angels.

If we ſpeak of the whole Body of our Laws collectively, they may be ſaid to form a Conſtitution in Speculation the moſt permanent in Nature:——If we ſpeak of them ſeparately, where they regulate private Rights, we cannot but applaud, and be grateful for, the Sagacity and Wiſdom of the great Contrivers. When therefore the Structure of ſuch a Conſtitution begins to break, or rather to be broken, it muſt be owing to ſome weak or wicked Government of it: And the Law muſt be overrun with diſhoneſt Attornies, when Redreſs ſhall become more terrible than Injury, when thoſe Laws which were deſigned to relieve are made to ruin.

There are ſeveral compendious Digeſts of our Laws made by private Men. It were to be wiſhed, rather than expected, that a Parliamentary Digeſt could be executed. The Study and Practice of the Law would then be as eaſy and obvious as it is now difficult and dark.

However, many Defects are cured by the excellent Inſtitution of trying Men by their Peers. To the Glory of Alfred it is ſpoken, he has been called the Author of this Inſtitution, or rather the Improver of it. The Antiquity of moſt of the preſent Cuſtoms date the Æra of their Riſe in the Reign of this good King, as if they were emulous of an honourable Beginning.

A Jury of honeſt Men is a Bulwark of Liberty. They can ſupply Defect in the Laws of ot Men by the Law of God. Reaſon, ſtampt more or leſs in every Breaſt, helps them out. If a Law ſhould be wreſted in its Meaning to ſerve the Turn of the powerful Party, and to oppreſs the weaker, it is but informing the Jury and, if they are Men who are entirely within the Guidance of their Oaths, if they are Men of Conſcience, they will demonſtrate their Significance and their Power, to the Diſappointment of Oppreſſion and their own laſting Honour.

In all the Engliſh Law, there is not a Point ſo controvertable as the Matter of Libels: And yet, if Common Senſe and Reaſon might be allowed a Share in the Debate, nothing would be more eaſily decided. The grand Queſtion (for it ſeems it has been ſometimes heretofore made a Queſtion of) is, Whether Truth does make a Libel as well as Falſehood? Or, in other words, Whether a true Libel is not as bad as a falſe one.

Whatever may be the Complexion of the Reader, if his Riſibility is not in ſome degree moved, at the Notion of a true Libel, I ſhould be glad to find any other Cauſe for his Stoicism than, by arraigning his Apprehenſion, treſpaſs on my own. Methinks a falſe Truth, a true Falſhood, an honeſt Knave, and a true Libel, are Proprieties in Language which ſhould by no means eſcape the Notice of Mr. Johnſon, leſt after all his Pains to furniſh us with a complete Engliſh Dictionary, his Work ſhould turn out imperfect. As there is no Figure in Rhetoric by which to deſcribe ſuch a peculiar Mode of Expreſſion, I would humbly propoſe, with all ſuitable Deference to the Critics, it might be called The Abſurd.

——Non eſt quod multa loquamur;
Nil intra eſt oleam, nil extra eſt in nuce duri.

The Trial of *John Peter Zenger, gives a very notable Diſplay of a true Libel, and a very exemplary Event to the Proſecution of one. Zenger printed a News-Paper, and in it what was called a true Libel on the Governor of New-York, his Officers, &c. Agreeable to the Star Chamber Practice of proceeding by Information, the Governor's Attorney-General informed the Court, as the Information ſpecifies, That Zenger was a Printer and Publiſher of Libels; that he had publiſhed a certain falſe, malicious, ſcandalous, and ſeditious Libel; containing, &c. (Here follows the libellous Matter, with the Innuendoes) concluding as uſual, with praying the Adviſement of the Court in the Premiſſes, &c.

The Court happened to be divided in Opinion: The Judges directed the Jury to bring Zenger in Guilty; but the Jury, who knew the Matter of the Libel to be true, had the Integrity and Conſcience to bring him in Not Guilty. They knew he had printed what the Judges on that Bench was pleaſed to call a true Libel, they had heard Zenger's Council avow it, and ſaw the Court would not be prevailed on to admit Evidence to the Truth of the Libel. The Jury ſaw and heard all this, and Zenger, who they knew had only printed Truth, could not be guilty of the Charge ſet forth in the Information, and therefore, to their immortal Honour, they acquitted him.

Thus was the Conſcience of theſe People their Power; for had they implicitly followed the Direction of the Court, the New-Yorkiſts would have as effectually loſt the Liberty of the Preſs as if an Act of Aſſembly had formally paſſed to that End; and in that they would have loſt too one of the deareſt Privileges of Mankind,--- the rational Liberty of complaining againſt Oppreſſion.

Had I room to tranſcribe, unmutilated, the excellent Argument of Mr. Hamilton on the Occaſion, I ſhould be ſure to command Attention where there was Feeling. Eloquence and Learning bear but the ſecond Place in this truly noble Performance: The Ardor of the Patriot is the Spirit which animates it, and the more the Reader is poſſeſſed of this ætherial Fire, the greater will be the Tranſport of his Admiration on the Peruſal of it. As it perfectly coincides with my Purpoſe, which is no more at preſent than to remind Juries of their Importance and the Jealouſy with which they ought to maintain it, I ſhall conclude with part of Mr. Hamilton's Oration about the Concluſion of it:

——"The beſt Blood in Britain has been ſhed in the Cauſe of Liberty; and the Freedom we enjoy at this Day, may be ſaid to be, in a great Meaſure, owing to the glorious Stand the famous Hampden, and others of our Countrymen, made againſt the arbitrary Demands, and illegal Impoſitions, of the Times in which they lived; who rather than give up the Rights of Engliſhmen, and ſubmit to pay an illegal Tax of no more, I think, than Three Shillings, reſolved to undergo, and for the Liberty of their Country did undergo, the greateſt Extremities, in that arbitrary and terrible Court of Star-chamber, to whoſe arbitrary Proceedings (it being compoſed of the principal Men of the Realm, and calculated to ſupport arbitrary Government) no Bounds or Limits could be ſet, nor could any other Hand remove the Evil but a Parliament.

" Power may juſtly be compared to a great River, which, kept within due Bounds, is both beautiful and uſeful; but when it overflows its Banks, it is then too tempeſtuons to be ſtemmed: it bears down all before it, and brings Deſtruction and Deſolation wherever it comes. If then this is the Nature of Power, let us at leaſt do our Duty, and like wiſe Men (who value Freeeom) uſe our utmoſt Care to ſupport Liberty, the only Bulwark againſt lawleſs Power, which in all Ages has ſacrificed to its wild Luſt and boundleſs Ambition, the Blood of the beſt Men that ever lived."

" But to conclude; the Queſtion before the Court and you, Gentlemen of the Jury, is not of ſmall or private Concern; it is not the Cauſe of a poor Printer, nor of New-York alone, which you are now trying: No! It may, in it's Conſequence, affect every Freeman that lives under a Britiſh Government. It is the beſt Cauſe: It is the Cauſe of Liberty! And I make no Doubt but your upright Conduct this Day will not only entitle you to the Love of of your Fellow citizens; but every Man, who prefers Freedom to a Life of Slavery, will bleſs and honour you as Men who have baffled the Attempt of Tyranny, and who, by an impartial and uncorrupt Verdict, have laid a noble Foundation for ſecuring to ourſelves, our Poſterity, and our Neighbours, That, to which Nature and the Laws of our Country have given us a Right,—— the Liberty, both of expoſing and oppoſing arbitrary Power, by writing and ſpeaking Truth."

LONDON.

We hear that the Trials of the Printer and Publiſhers of the Caſe of Alexander Murray, Eſq; is to come on ſome Day next Week at the King's Bench Bar, Weſtminſter.

Tueſday the court of King's Bench was moved, on the affidavits of the Jury, for a new trial of Simons, the Poliſh Jew, and a rule of court was granted for the proſecutor to ſhew cauſe why a new trial ſhould not be granted next aſſizes for the county of Eſſex. So that the Paragraph in our laſt muſt have been a miſtake.

Orders are given for the inſtaliation of the knights of the garter, which was to have been the 21ſt of May, to be changed to the 14th, on account of the 21ſt being in Whitſun week.

We have an account from Lisbon, that lord Tyrawley, ambaſſador from this court to that of Portugal, is arrived there and has preſented his letters of credence to his Portugueſe Majeſty.

To the good proviſion made to preſerve the game it is humbly apprehended that if a clauſe was added to preſerve the farmers property, it would very often prove the Means of preſerving the game: For though it is a very fine ſport for gentlemen to ride after a ſtag or hare, 'tis death to the Husbandman to ſee the ſweat of his brow trampled upon. In all our pleaſures and divertions we ſhould firſt ſee that they be innocent; and to make them ſo, care muſt be taken that they be not detrimental to ourſelves nor to others.

Tueſday morning Governor Matthews, who has been ſome time in England, ſet out from his houſe in Dean-ſtreet, Soho, for Portſmouth, in order to embark on board commodore Pye, for his Government of the Leeward Iſlands.

His royal highneſs the duke of Cumberland has given orders, that all the men in the three regiments of foot guards, who are under five feet eight inches in Statue ſhould be diſcharged, and others taken in their room; by which upwards of a forth part will be diſmiſſed.

'Tis aſſured that repreſentations have been made to the court of France concerning the affair of the Marquis Fretteaux, and a diſcuſſion of the ſame is daily expected.

Tueſday a court of common council was held at Guildhall, when a memorial of the preſent ſheriffs of this city was preſented, ſetting forth, that in former times the ſum of 26 l. per annum was allowed to each ſheriff, excluſive of the ſum now allowed; when after ſome debates, the ſame was referred to the conſideration of a committe, who are to make a report to the next court of common council.

At the ſaid court a petition of ſeveral inhabitants reſiding in and near Aldermanbury was preſented, praying that the poſtern in London wall, at the bottom of the ſaid ſtreet, might be pulled down, and an opening made, and that poſts may be erected in the room of the ſaid poſtern; which petition was referred to the committee of city lands.

At a court martial on Monday laſt, a young fellow who had enliſted into the French ſervice, and who was diſcovered going to embark at Dover, was ordered to be ſent to Gibralter for Life.

Wedneſday died, after a lingering illneſs, at his houſe in Cleveland Row, St. James's, near eighty years of Age, the Right Hon. William Clayton, lord Sundon, of the kindom of Ireland, and Member in the preſent parliament for St. Maws in Cornwall. He formerly repreſented the city of Weſtminſter, the Boroughs of St. Albans, Woodſtock, Plimpton, &c. in parliament. By his death the title is extinct; his lordſhip dying without a will, his eſtate devolves to a ſiſter of his Lordſhip.

On Thurſday night laſt, as Mr. William Greenhill, joiner to his royal highneſs the prince of Wales, was returning home, he was attacked by two footpads in Blenheim ſtreet, Piccadily, one of whom knocked him down, and afterwards held a piſtol to his head threatening to blow his brains out if he offered to make a noiſe, while the other with a knife cut his breeches pockets, in which were nine guineas and ſome ſilver, which they took and then made off.

Laſt Wedneſday night a poſſe of conſtables and ſoldiers went to Lord Cobham's head near Sir John Oldcaſtles's, and took up ſeveral perſons who were aſſembled there to hear the muſic, &c. and Thurſday morning they were examined bsfore juſtice Fielding, who bound ſome of them over to their good behaviour, and committed thoſe who could not give a good account of themſelves.

Wedneſday the officers and crew belonging to his Majeſty's ſhip Medways prize were paid at the King's Arms upon Tower Hill their reſpective ſhares for the Sainta Catherina, which was taken in the late War in the Eaſt Indies. The legality of this Capture has been long depending. Each ſailor's ſhare amounted to upwards of 65 l. The Laſcars, who have been Beggars about the ſtreets of this city, belonged to the ſaid Medway's prize.

Wedneſday in the ſtorm before noon, Mr. George Stringer riding by Hoſpital-bridge near Twickenham Common, had his hat blown off into the water: He alighted and went into the water in his boots, but the mud being deep, as he ſtooped to take up his hat, he fell forwards, and tho' a man came immediately to his aſſiſtance, he was ſuffocated before he could be got out. There were found in his Pockets a gold watch, a bank note of an hundred pounds, ſeveral notes of hand, two diamonds rings, a plain gold ring, and half a moidore, beſides ſilver and Halfpence. He had on a blue great coat, a brown coat and Breeches, a ſcarlet Waiſtcoat, and was without ſpurs.

Wedneſday was preached at St. Anne's church, Weſtminſter, a moſt excellent ſermon by the Rev. Dr. Thomas, Rector of Bletchingly in Surry, and chaplain in ordinary to his Majeſty, before the governors of the Middleſex hoſpital, in recommendation of that Charity, where were preſent a very polite and numerous company of Ladies, when Mr. Handel's new Te Deum and Coronation Anthem, with Dr. Boyce's new Anthem, were vocally and Inſtrumentally performed. The collection Collection amounted to 96 l. 5 s. The gentlemen then proceeded to the great room in Dean ſtreet, to dine with Sir Peter Warren, Knt. and Sir Kenrick Clayton, Knt. two of the vice preſident of that Hoſpital and the ſtewards, where were preſent ſeveral gentlemen of quality and diſtinction, and a very numerous company of governors and others. The collection after dinner, (which was very elegant) amounted to 119 l. 12 s. of which 71 l. 8 s. are new and annual ſubſcriptions.

Monday the cloaths of a Woman was found on the banks of the New River, with her name pinn'd thereto; as ſhe was ſuppoſed to have drowned herſelf that part (from Iſlington to Sadlers Wells) was dragged, and her body being found, was carried to Clerkenwell bonehouſe, in order to be owned.

Monday five malefactors were executed at Tyburn, no heroes, within the memory of mun, ever met their fate boldneſs and intrepidity. As Leak was conveying to the Place of Execution, he eſpied the officer who apprehended him, and withall the force he was then maſter of diſcharged an orange at his head. At the place of execution he called out to his friends, who were aſſembled to protect his body from the ſurgeons, and after ſome diſpute with them, ſaid twice or thrice, " I will have it my own way." The Cart then moving, he called out to the executioner, in a jeſting manner, " Pray don't hang us before our time." In ſhort, by his whole behaviour, he endeavoured to ſhew the utmoſt contempt of, or rather a total unconcern at his Fate. And this behaviour was imitated by three others of his companions, to the great Encouragement of all future heroes of the ſame kind.

Laſt Sunday one William Lowry, ſaid to be brother to Capt. Lowry, lately executed at Execution dock, was, by William Hammond, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's juſtices of the peace for the county of Surry, oommitted to priſon, for being concerned, as 'tis thought, in the cruel treatment of a poor man ſince dead, who was lately robbed and wounded in St. George's fields, as mentioned in the morning papers a few days ſince; the ſaid Lowry being very drunk laſt Sunday, declared voluntarily that he knew who robbed and treated the man ſo.

Saturday laſt Rachael Davies was re-examined before Juſtice Fielding, for giving a boy ſome Love powder, on her examination ſhe daclared ſhe fetch'd it for the uſe of another girl, at whoſe deſire like wiſe ſhe had enquired after the Ratsbane, but had none. An eminent ſurgeon having examined the boy declared, he had not the leaſt apprehenſion his complains were oncaſioned by any thing poiſonous not having any ſymptoms which attend on thoſe who have taken poiſon; upon the whole therefore as there was neither love nor hatred between the two parties, and ſeveral perſon appearing to her character, ſhe was diſcharged.

Saturday Night about eleven o'clock, two Gentlamen in a one horſe chair, were attacked between Knightsbridge and Kenſington by two highwaymen mounted on white horſes. They preſented horſe piſtols to their heads and took from one of the gentlemen a gold watch with a Steel chain, and two guineas in Gold; from the other they took a ſtone ſtock buckle, and a pair of ſilver ſpurs, but the highwayman who came up to him refuſed both money and watch, and deſired his companion to return the watch he had taken, which he did, and bidding them very genteelly good night, galloped towards Kinſington.

The Gloria man of war from Jamaica made her Voyage from thence to Spithead in eight weeks, She has been ſo healthy, that they have buried but three men ſince they ſailed from Spithead in May laſt,

Monday morning commodore Saunders ſet out for Portſmouth to go on board the Penzance man of war, was, in order to ſail for Newfoundland to protect the Fiſheries.

Laſt week was launched at Rocheſter, a buſs built by Mr. Thomas Stewords, for the ſociety of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery, and named the Hardwicke. As was, about the ſame time, another buſs, built near Southampton by Mr. Robert Fabian, and named the Taunton, to perpetuate the memory of a gentleman who was a very warm friend to the above national undertaking.

Laſt Week was launched at Ipſwich a buſs built by Mr. John Barnard, for the ſociety of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery, and named the Harcourt, in honor of the nobleman of that name, governor to his royal highneſs the prince of Wales.

Lately were launched at Liverpool, two Buſſes built by Mr. John Parke; and two more by Mr. Richard Golightly, (both builders of that town) for the Herring Fiſhery ſociety; and named the Northampton, the Maynard, the Romney, and the Folkſtone; in honor of four noblemen, who are proprietors and great encouragers of this national fiſhery above mentioned.

Extract of a Letter from Graveſend, April 23.

" The following unlucky accident happened here on Monday laſt. A ſervant of Mr. G——n of Rocheſter, driving his cart at the upper part of the town, the fore horſe grew ruſty, and broke away from the cart, running upon a little piece of land juſt by the Road; on which the man not thinking it poſſible a well ſhould be in ſuch a place, never quitted his hold; ſo that they both went to the bottom, which is near 70 feet deep. The horſe was killed on the ſpot, and great care is taken of the Man, but it is feared he cannot recover."

Extract of a Leter from Port l'Orient, April 6.

" The advantages gained by M. Dupleix shew themselves more and more every day. Not the leaſt inſult was offered, during the whole march, to the detachment he had ſent to eſcort the King of Golconda home; but every perſon who was upon that Duty is returned not only ſafe but rich. M. de Buſſy, the commanding officer, tells his ſhare by millions, and the officers and ſoldiers have been proportionally gratified, ſo that they roll in pearls and diamonds. M. Carre, ſupercargo of the Rouille, tells me amazing particulars, and which he had from Abbe Stafford, who is coming with very important diſpaches in the Holy Queen frigate, which M. Dupleix ſent away from Pondicherry, and which left the iſle of France a month before the Puſieulx. M. Dupleix is become, as it were the ſole arbiter of India, and has made our nation ſo reſpected all over the Mogul empire, that any Frenchman may go to Dely, the capital of all India on this ſide the Ganges, without any moleſtation. At the coming away of the Rouille the ſiege of Trichenapalay was in hand, being a fortified place, and neceſſary to Nabob Chandaſaob our ally. The Engliſh have thrown themſelves into it, but we ſhall quickly beat up their Quarters. Not a ſingle ally have they in all India ſince the death of their beloved dupe Nabob Ali Kan, lately killed at Trichenapalay, which was in a fair Way of becoming ours, at the Time of the Rouille's departure. The ſiege is conducted by M. Law. Beſides the vaſt quantities of Goods already ſhipped this year from Pondicherry, the remainder is, to Appearance, inexhauſtible, and all M. Dupleix wants is ſhipping to ſend them to Europe."

A Medicine that hath gained ſo much Credit for the ſe many Years it has been publiſhed, that not one of the many Pretenders to cure the like Caſe, has at all hindered the juſt Reputation this firſt, and only Specific for theſe Purpoſes, hath obtained, by its moſt noble Effects; for it doth not only cure ſuch difficult Caſes, which no other Medicine can, bnt in every ordinary Caſe, one Bottle well do more Good than four that are ſold by any of the Common Pretenders, as has been ſufficiently atteſted by many Perſons of Worth and Reputation, that have found the deſired Effects and declared it to Mr. Sandwell.

For it may certainly be depended on as abſolutely effectual, in carrying off by Urine, ſafely and ſpeedily, all the Remains of pernicious unskillfully prepared Mercurials, Gleets or Weakneſſes through tedious or ill managed Cures of the Venereal Diſeaſe, or ſelf Pollution, inordinate Coition, &c Alſo any Weakneſſes of the Veſſels, from Wrenches, Strains, Blows, or Falls, and all other Obſtruſtions in the Urianary Paſſages, even Stranguries, Ulcers, &c.

It is alſo of ſingular and very extraordinary Efficacy, where there is any Gravel, or even ſmall Stones, Slime, or any other Matter that obſtructs the Urine; bringing all away in a few Times taking, with Safety, as has been happily experienced by great Numbers of both Sexes; and paticularly by a Gentleman, whoſe Caſe has ſo often been mentioned in the Advertiſements by a Certificate of his Cure; who at taking a little of it voided above an Ounce of Gravel, and was cured of an inſurportable Pain about his Loins, &c. by a ſhort continuance of it.

It is a very pleaſant Medicine, and will be found of uncommon Benefit to Mankind, beyond Expectation, which is the Reaſon of its being made publick, and to obviate the Ignorance of Pretenders in all the difficult Caſes abovementioned.

One Bottle in moſt Caſes, is ſufficient for a perfect Cure, as you will ſee by the Directions given with it. It is ſold for 7 s. 6 d the Bottle, at Mr. Sandwell's Toyſhop, at the Sign of the Griffin the Corner of Bucklersbury in the Poultry.

The uncommon Succeſs above Forty Years laſt paſt, of the ſo much-famed and only true Original

Royal Chymical WASH-BALL,

FOR beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands, hath induced many envious Perſons, not only in every Part of London, but in many Places in the Country to ſell a counterfeit white Ball, (which may prove prejudicial as well as ineffectual) in Imitation of the true one.

To prevent as much as poſſible any Miſtakes in Prejudice to our Cuſtomers, we give this ſpecial Notice, That the true Sort are now ſold only by Mrs Wharton, a Milliner, at the Sign of the Bluecoat Boy, and Fan, near the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, and by Mrs. Stephens a Milliner at the Sign of the Blue Ball near the Middle Temple Gate in Fleetſtreet. Price 1 s. each Ball, or 12 to the Dozen; but no Allowance for leſs than 12 Balls at a Time, nor will they ever be ſold any where elſe, except Notice be firſt given in theſe Advertiſements of it.

Their true and real Virtues have been ſufficiently atteſted in the Years that they have been ſold by Publication, and the more ſo, as they are ſtill more than ever uſed and admired by both Sexes of the beſt Quality, and many Thouſands of Gentry and others, for making the Skin ſo delicately ſoft and ſmooth, as not to be parelled by any Waſh or Waſhballs, or any Kind of Form; for theſe Balls are indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetters, Ringworms, Morphew, Sun burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redneſs of the Small Pox, and keeping it of a laſting and extreme Whiteneſs; they ſoon alter red or rough Hands, are admirable in ſhaving the Head, not only giving a moſt exquiſite Sharpneſs to the Razor, but ſo comfort the Brain and Nerves as to prevent catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleaſant Smell, without the leaſt Grain of Mercury, and may be eaten for their Safety.

The True Cordial QUINTESSENCE of VIPERS the moſt Noble and Grand Preparation in the whole Materia Medica, for the real, ſubſtantial Cure of Impotency in Men, and Barenneſs in Women; and is vaſtly preferable to Viper Wine, or any other Prepavation of Vipers whatever, as being replete with the full and whole Virtues of them.

A few Drops of it only, gives ſuch a generous Warmth, and ſ exceedingly delights the Vital and Animal Spirits, Senſes, an Nerves, as ſoon to ſhew what it will do, upon a little Continuance of it; for it not only promotes, and prompts to a Deſire, but alſo furniſhes proper Matter for the Support and Eſtabliſhment of a true laſting Inclination and Power.

By this Means it anſwers the End as well of Food as Phyſick; nor is there any thing in Nature beſides, that can in that Reſpect come up to it conſidering that it univerſally nouriſhes and reſtores in all the Deficiſions of Deſire and Vigour, without the leaſt forcing the Veſſels, or ſtimulating the Parts, as moſt other Medicines for theſe Purpoſes do: And tho' it be a Maxim in Phyſick, that SINE CERERE & BACCHO FRIGET VENUS, that is, in itſelf is ſo ſufficiently nutritious as to want no Aſſiſtance that Way; not but it muſt be allowed, that good Eating and Drinking with it, cannot but in ſome Degree, at leaſt as an Auxiliary contribute to its Efficacy.

Nor does it only furniſh Matter and create Deſire, but alſo true Power (as it bra es up and corroborates the Teſtes) and gives an elaſtick Springineſs to the Muſculi Erectores Penis in Men, and correct, cleanſes, and comforts the Uterus, or Womb in Women, the Lankneſs and Laxity of the former, and the Founeſs, Coldneſs, or Obſtruction of the latter, being more the Cauſe of Impotency or Infertility, in theſe Sex, and Indifferency or Sterility in the other than any Thing elſe beſide; and that it is Balſamick, and greatly Reſtorative, is confirmed by long Experience, and we have many Inſtances in Phyſical Writings, of Perſons arriving to a healthful old Age, as well as recover'd from deplorable Decays and Weakneſſes, by a continued Uſe of the common Preperations of Vipers, which this Quinteſſence, by being of vaſtly more Efficacy, brings about in a Quarter of the Time, and with the Tenth Part of the Quantity.

Thoſe who but once try it, will ſo pleaſantly experience in nutritive quickening Properties, in exhilerating the Heart, reviving the Spirits, comforting the Vitals, circulating the Juice, and recreating and renovating, as it were the whole Man, that they will never be without it; for it is ſuch a preſent Help, in Time of Need, as that on the taking then but a Doſe or two more of it than ordinary, it will ſo inſtantaneouſly animate the dull inactive Spirits, and rouze up and actuate the ſluggiſh enfeebled Faculties, in both Sexes, as to excite and capacitate where it could hardly be expected, and at the ſame Time ſeldom fails to render that conjuge Intercourſe Prolifick, Price Half a Guinea the Bottle.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Bottles, being lately dead, it is now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnſon, Baker, at the Seven Stars in Vere-Street, Clare-Market, ſealed up with Directions (for any Meſſenger) upon aſking for only a bottle of Quinteſſence.

The moſt wonderful cleanſing and ſtrengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weakneſſes and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miſcarriages in Women; and to cleanſe and ſtrengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Stranguries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which It has gained ſuch Repute, that near 30000 Bottles have been ſold ſince April 1734, that they were firſt publiſh'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the abovelaid Diſorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicines, were preſcrib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obſtinate Gleet and Weakneſs, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harraſs'd with Electuaries, Boluſſes, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Preſcription (which he has ſtill upon his File) has made Uſe of them ever ſince to Numbers of People in the very worſt of Gleets, ſeminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Diſorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmoſt Succeſs and Safety; as alſo in all Weakneſſes from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, exceſſive Coition, Self Pollution, ſeminal Emiſſions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Caſes thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of ſo divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s. 6 d. each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more eſpecially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the moſt draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weakneſſes of the Seminals and Genitals, as alſo of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleanſing and healing, or a more ſtrengthening and invigorate ing Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will ſay, by their ſoon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards reſtoring in theſe Weakneſſes than any others can in ten, and is of ſo corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Reliple, even in the tendereſt Conſtitutions, which can hardly be ſaid of any other Medicine; and it is withal ſo elegantly pleaſant to the Palate, and ſo agreeable to the Stomach that the niceſt Perſon is delighted with it.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son in Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-ſtreet, near Clare-Market, ſealed up, with Directions, for any Meſſenger upon aſking only for a Bottle of Drops and paying 4 s 6 d.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any Other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them; insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances they assuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and ergen the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The Famous and Inestimable

PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The highest, richest, and most powerful Cordial in Nature it recommended,

BEING the only true and Infallible Cure for Impotency in Men and Barrenness in Women, in the Universe, and which it at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Current of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and suddenly it renovates, recruits and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright lively Disposition banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression.

Abundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deem'd incurably Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fast living, Strains, or Self Abuses, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, insomuch, that very many illustrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even seems to keep back the Effects of Old Age it self.

It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, London, at 5s. a Bottle, sealed up with printed Directions, and Advice at large.

The So much fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels, which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange, in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions and Advice at large.

GLEETS and SEMINAL WEAKNESSES,

SO destructive to the Constitution, and ruinous not only to the unhappy Individual labouring under them, by draining away the Radical Moisture or very Essence of Life, and inducing Consumptions, Nervous Disorders, &c. but to Posterity also, inasmuch as those afflicted with such Gleetings, if not wholly disabled, as very many are from propagating their Species, are yet render'd incapable of begetting any other than puny, miserable, and short-liv'd Issue.

These wasting Gleetings, occasion'd by Self-pollution, excessive Venery, severe Purging for Venereal Injuries, or by violent Strains, &c. and which have been deem'd by almost all Physicians and Surgeons to be so very difficult to overcome, are now so certainly known to be directly, and in a manner at once perfectly cur'd by the Grand Restrictive Balsamick Electuary, that no one, how bad soever, need despair of being entirely set to Rights by it in a few Days.

It is from this its most extraordinary Efficacy, that so many Practitioners in Town and Country now send for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only sure and infallible Remedy that can be safely rely'd upon in those Cases. The Price of this Grand Medicine is 6s. a Pot, seal'd up, with a Book of Instructions, highly necessary to be read by all Persons whoever were afflicted with any Disorder of the Seminal Vessels or neighbouring Parts.

Note, This fam'd Balsamic Electuary is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamic Electuary. No Letters answer'd unless Post-paid.

To Persons of either Sex,
Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which, after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprizing Success even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon finds all Numbness, Deadness, and shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more, and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wished for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expells Winds, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON,

THE only short and most infallible CURE in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a feminal Gleet, on Weakness, to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings-out, and all other the most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to proclaim it the only apposite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this some Thousands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

Hence it is that so many Practitioners in Town and Country send for it for their Patients, as finding it absolutely to be depended upon, and much more safe and effectual than any other Medicine whatever.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and agreeable Manner.

All such, likewise, as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doses of it, entirely free themselves from all Suspicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulness of the Skin, or Julous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this most noble Anti-Siphylicon is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient, in most Cases, to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, the Perusal of which all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, This Grand Anti-Siphylicon is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters answer'd, unless Post-paid.
